

CHAIR IN E-BUSINESS

Master Thesis with Research Seminar

Before you apply for our Master's Thesis Seminar, please check you study program regulations to see if you fulfill all necessary requirements!

If you are interested in writing a Master's Thesis, please send short letter of interest to ebusiness@ovgu.de (<mailto:ebusiness@ovgu.de>) (maximum two pages).

Please understand that due to a large number of applications, it does take some time to respond!

There is no application deadline!

The Seminar for Summer Term 2024 is closed!

The letter of interest should consist of:

- ▶ a short CV
- ▶ your field of study and your specialization
- ▶ your study plan
- ▶ your career plan
- ▶ your grade overview from the Examinations Office (including your statement that you fulfill your study program's requirements for applying for a Master's Thesis)
- ▶ a chosen topic from the research areas listed below, research question(s), research method(s) to be applied

Seminar:

Lecturers

› Prof. Dr. Sadrieh (<https://e-business.ovgu.de/ebusiness/en/Our+Team/Chair.html>)

› Dr. Anke Hielscher (<https://e-business.ovgu.de/ebusiness/en/Our+Team/Anke+Hielscher.html>)

› M.A. Mathilde Dräger (<https://e-business.ovgu.de/ebusiness/en/Our+Team/Mathilde+Dr%C3%A4ger.html>)

Date

Fri. 09:00-11:00

Research areas:

- ▶ applied industrial economics
- ▶ online/offline marketing
- ▶ market design
- ▶ e-commerce
- ▶ game theory
- ▶ behavioral economics
- ▶ information economics
- ▶ personnel economics
- ▶ social preferences
- ▶ globalization

› Guidelines for academic paper writing (https://e-business.ovgu.de/ebusiness_media/Downloads/Vorlesungen/New+Guidelines+for+Academic+Paper+Writing+14_03_2022-p-1320.pdf)

› Guidelines on holding a scientific presentation (https://e-business.ovgu.de/ebusiness_media/Downloads/Vorlesungen/Guidelines+on+holding+a+scientific+presentation.pdf)