In addition to all the usual social benefits of the public sector, we have more to offer, such as the possibility of flexible working hours. Modern working conditions, a wide range of training and development opportunities, and a positive work environment that is highly valued by our employees distinguish us as an employer. We also offer a wide range of sports and leisure activities, extensive catering in our canteens and cafeterias as well as workplace health promotion.

Applications from disabled persons will be given priority in the case of equal suitability, ability and professional expertise. The Otto von Guericke University aims to increase the proportion of women researchers within the university and specifically encourages women to apply.

At the time of appointment, foreign educational qualifications have to be assessed for equivalence with a German educational qualification. If, in exceptional cases, only the Central Office for Foreign Education (ZAB) (<https://www.kmk.org/zab/central-office-for-foreign-education.html>) may carry out this assessment by issuing a so-called Statement of Comparability (SoC), it is the responsibility of foreign certificate holders to apply for such SoC.
